

STAY & PLAY!

Traveler Brief

Welcome To Hagerman Valley And The West End Area Of Southern Idaho!

Prepare to be amazed by the geology and natural beauty of the area! Don't forget to stop in the quaint shops and restaurants to truly experience all that Southern Idaho has to offer.

In fact, why not make it even easier . . . download our new mobile app to your smartphone. Find details on these locations and a live GPS-based attraction finder, to help you get around and check out the great deals and packages. Go to the app store and type in "Southern Idaho" or go to our website at visitsouthidaho.com - it's free.

IDAHO
www.visitidaho.org

For additional information on Idaho, call 1-800-VISIT-ID

11-IV-1:3M

Thousand Springs State Park

Well worth the short trip off the freeway! There are 5 great attractions for those who take this short adventure from exit 147 and follow the signs. Malad Gorge, Kelton Trail, Earl M. Hardy Box Canyon Springs Nature Preserve, Billingsley Creek, Ritter Island, and Crystal Springs and Niagara Springs are all waiting for your enjoyment. Fishing, hiking, bird watching and more.

Hagerman Wildlife Viewing Area

Hagerman Wildlife Management Area is an 880-acre wetland riparian preserve. The area is home for thousands of ducks and geese as well as peregrine falcons, ospreys, golden and bald eagles. The best viewing can be done at the viewing area at the Hagerman Rest Area east of the city of Hagerman. Both the US Fish and Wildlife Service and Idaho Fish and Game have hatchery operations adjacent that are open to visitors.

Hagerman Fossil Beds National Monument

Have you ever seen artist's pictures of the miniature horse that existed in pre-historic times? Hagerman Fossil beds are the place where it was discovered! A lake about the size of Erie used to exist here and the "Hagerman Horse" grazed on its shores. See the fossil beds, historical exhibits and visitor's center.

Unique Golf Experience at Buhl & Filer

Southern Idaho boasts over 300 days of sunshine in an average year, and these Southern Idaho golf courses enjoy most of it. In Buhl you'll find Clear Lake Country Club, featuring catch & release fly fishing. Uniquely positioned close to the Snake River Canyon, visitors and locals love keeping their game going almost all year long as this course is unusually warm in the winter and cool in the summer. What a treat for the golfing visitor. Also, don't miss Pebble Ponds Golf Course in Filer!

i-Shop

The unique communities of Southern Idaho are home to lots of friendly shops, restaurants and coffee houses, which adorn the streets and give a real sense of community. While you are filling your grocery bag remember Southern Idaho is also famous for growing some of the sweetest corn you've ever tasted and of course Idaho potatoes. We're waiting for you now.

Balanced Rock

It took years for the wind to carve this 40-ton piece of basalt into the 49-foot piece of art called "Balanced Rock". Drive from Buhl to the Balanced Rock turnoff, stay on the main road and follow the signs about 17 miles. You'll be driving through lush farmland when you drop down into an amazing little canyon and admire the series of rock formations and a unique little camping area.

